

I notice that some kids are not dressed nice on picture day. Why do kids not dress nice on picture day? Do they even care how they look for their pictures? If they don't I certainly do! I think that their parents should make their kids wear nice clothes for picture day, don't you? The kids responsibility is to make sure they look nice because they are going to have that picture forever and it is not fair for the kids who look nice. The kids who look nice really care that their picture looks good. I am one of those kids who wants to look nice.
